M. SHAW, Collector.

Sylhet Collectorship, the 15th February, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1853, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd,—All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions, will be requested, through the Military Department, not to grant certificates of qualification to any Candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years: and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expence and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd,—Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of Examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th,—The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th,—No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers, and the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, as stated above, require to be furnished with regular descriptive rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th,—All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster, without special leave.

7th,—All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th,—No Candidate will be admitted to the School, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By Order,)

J. FORSYTH, Senior Surgeon,
Offg. Secy. Council of Education.

Fort William,
The 22nd January 1853.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to, or having claims on, the Estate of the late Captain C. S. Reynolds, 49th Regiment Native Infantry, and Principal Assistant to the Commissioner of Assam, at Tezpor, are requested to make the same known without delay, by letter, post paid, to the Committee of Adjustment, now sitting at Tezpor.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 11th February, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 11th February 1853:

ACT No. — or 1853.

An Act to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General, It is enacted as follows:

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, there shall be an Administrator General. The said Administrators General shall be called respectively the Administrator General of Bengal, the Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay.

II. Such officers shall be appointed and removable as follows:

The Administrator General of Bengal, by the Governor General of India in Council.

The Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay, by the Governments of those Presidencies respectively.

III. Any person now holding the office of Administrator General at any of the said Presidencies, shall continue to hold the same, subject to the provisions of this Act.

IV. The Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity to be an officer of the Supreme Court.

V. All letters of administration which have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort St. George to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of that Court in virtue of his office since the passing of Act No. II. 1850; and all estates, effects and interests, books, papers and documents, now vested in, or belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Registrar, or under his control, by virtue of any such letters of administration, are by this Act, transferred to and vested in him as Administrator General of that Presidency.

VI. The two offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and Administrator General, may be held by the present Administrator General at the Presidency of Fort St. George. With that exception no person now holding the office of Administrator General, or hereafter to be appointed to such office, in any of the said Presidencies, shall, without the express sanction of the Government, hold the office of Ecclesiastical Registrar, or any other office, together with that of Administrator General.

VII. Every Administrator General hereafter to be appointed shall give security by bond to the East India Company for the due execution of his office, himself for one lakh of Rupees, and two or more sureties jointly and severally for another lakh of Rupees, or for separate sums amounting together to one lakh of Rupees, provided that at least two sureties shall be bound for each of such sums; and every Administrator General appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, shall, from time to time, when required by the Government so to do, cause a fresh surety or sureties to be substituted for any one or more of those previously bound, so far as the security shall relate to the due execution of his office for the time then to come.

VIII. No Administrator General shall be required by the Supreme Court to enter into any administration bond, or to give other security to the Court, on the grant of any letters of administration to him in virtue of his office.

IX. Any letters of administration, or letters ad colligenda bona, which shall hereafter be granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature, at any of the said Presidencies, shall be granted to the Administrator General of the Presidency, unless they shall be granted to the next of kin of the deceased; and it is hereby declared that the Administrator General of the Presidency, shall be deemed to have a right to letters of administration in preference to that of any person merely on the ground of his being a creditor or friend of the deceased.

X. The words "next of kin," shall be deemed throughout this Act to include a widower, or widow of the deceased, or a residuary legatee, or any other person, who, by law and according to the practice of the Courts, would be entitled to letters of administration in preference to a creditor of the deceased. Provided that no Ecclesiastical Registrar or other Officer of any of the said Courts, shall, by reason of his office, be deemed entitled to any letters of administration, or ad colligenda bona, or have any grant thereof made to him.

XI. If any person, not being a Mahomedan or Hindoo, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall, if a British subject, have left personal assets exceeding the value of five hundred Rupees within any of the said Presidencies, or any of the Provinces or places subject thereto, or shall, if not a British subject, have left personal assets, exceeding five hundred Rupees, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, and no person shall, within one month after his death, have applied for probate of a will, or for any letters of administration of his estate, the Administrator General of the Presidency in which such assets shall be, is hereby required, within a reasonable time after he shall have had notice of the death of such person, and of his having left such assets as aforesaid, to take such proceedings as may be necessary to obtain from the Supreme Court of Judicature at such Presidency, letters of administration to the effects of such person, either generally or with a will annexed, as the case may require. Provided that assets, which any person may be entitled to collect, receive, or dispose of, by virtue of a certificate granted under Act XX. 1841, shall not be deemed assets within the meaning of this Section.

XII. If in the course of such proceedings any executor, appointed by a will of the deceased, shall appear according to the practice of the Court, and prove the will and accept the office of executor, or any person shall appear according to such practice, and make out his claim to letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased, the Court shall grant probate of the will or letters of administration accordingly, and shall award to the Administrator General, his costs of the proceedings so taken by him, to be paid out of the estate, as part of the testamentary expenses thereof.

XIII. If no person shall appear according to the practice of the Court, and entitle himself to probate of a will, or to a grant of letters of administration, as next of kin of the deceased, the Court shall grant letters of administration to the Administrator General.

XIV. Nothing in this Act is intended to preclude the Administrator General from applying to the Court for letters of administration in any case within the period of one month from the death of the deceased.

XV. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General, under the provisions of this Act, shall be revoked or recalled, the same shall, as against the Administrator General, and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof, be deemed to have been only voidable except as to any act done by any such Administrator General, or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a will or of any other fact, which would render such letters of administration void.

XVI. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted under this Act, shall be revoked upon the production and proof of a will, all payments made, or acts done by, or under the authority of the Administrator General in pursuance of such letters of administration prior to the revocation thereof, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with such will annexed, shall be deemed valid, notwithstanding such revocation, as against all persons who shall not have previously had notice of the will.

XVII. If an executor or next of kin of the deceased, who shall not have been personally served with a citation, or had notice thereof in time to appear in pursuance thereof, shall establish to the satisfaction of the Court a claim to probate of a will or to letters of administration in preference to the Administrator General, any letters of administration which shall be granted by virtue of this Act to the Administrator General, may be recalled and revoked, and probate may be granted to such executor, or letters of administration granted to such other person as aforesaid. Provided that no letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General, shall be revoked or recalled for the cause aforesaid, except in cases in which a will or codicil of the deceased shall be proved, unless the application for that purpose shall be made within one year after the grant to the Administrator General, and the Court shall be satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay in making the application, or in transmitting the authority under which the application shall be made.

XVIII. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General in pursuance of this Act, shall be revoked, the Court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration, and the whole or any part of any commission which would otherwise have been payable under this Act, together with the costs of the Administrator General in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation, to be paid to, or retained by, the Administrator General out of any assets belonging to the estate.

XIX. Any payment or delivery of assets to any legatee, or to any person entitled in distribution, which shall be made by an Administrator General after the expiration of one year from the grant of the letters of administration under which such payment or delivery shall be made, shall be allowed to the Administrator General as against all creditors and other claimants against the estate, of whose debts or claims he shall not have had notice before making such payment or delivery. Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the person to whom such payment or delivery shall be made, from any liability to refund to which he would otherwise be liable.

XX. All letters of administration, which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall be granted to him by his name of office, and all letters of administration heretofore granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar or Administrator General officially, or which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall authorize the Administrator General for the time being of the same Presidency, to act as administrator of the Estate to which such letters of administration shall relate; and all estates, effects and interests, which at the time of the death, resignation or removal from office of any Administrator General shall be vested in him by virtue of such letters of administration, shall, upon such resignation or removal, cease to be vested in him, and shall vest in his successor in office immediately upon his appointment thereto, and all books, papers and documents kept by such Administrator General, by virtue of his office, shall be transferred to, and vested in his successor in office.

XXI. All actions, suits or other proceedings, which shall be commenced by or against any Administrator General, in his representative character, may be brought by or against him by his name of office, and no suit, action or other proceedings, already commenced, or which shall be commenced, against any person as Administrator General, either alone or jointly with any other person, shall abate by reason of the death, resignation or removal from office of any such Administrator General, but the same may, by order of the Court, and upon such terms as to the service of notices or otherwise as the Court may direct, be continued against his successor immediately upon his appointment, in the same manner as if no such death, resignation, or removal had occurred. Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained, shall render any such successor personally liable for any costs incurred prior to the order for continuing the action or suit against him.

XXII. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies, under any letters of administration, which shall be granted to him in his official character, or under any probate which shall be granted to him of a will wherein he shall be named as executor by virtue of his office, shall be entitled to receive a commission, at the rate of five rupees for every one hundred rupees, which he shall collect and invest in Government Securities, or pay into the public treasury, as hereinafter mentioned; and such commission may be retained by him out of any assets of the estate liable thereto, which shall come to his hands. In consequence, however, of the expenses and responsibility which will be incurred by the East India Company, two-fifths of the commission which shall be received by the Administrator General of Bengal, shall be paid by him into the public treasury, and be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company. The Administrator General of Madras and the Administrator General of Bombay may, subject to the provisions of the next Section of this Act, retain the whole of the five per cent. which shall be received by them, unless the Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively shall otherwise order. The said Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively, may issue orders, requiring the Administrators General of those Presidencies respectively, to pay into the General Treasury, to the account and credit of the East India Company, any portion, not exceeding two-fifths of the commission, which shall be payable to them respectively after the issuing of such orders.

XXIII. The commission to which the Administrator General of each of the said three Presidencies shall be entitled, is intended to cover not merely the expense and trouble of collecting the assets, but also his trouble and responsibility in distributing them in due course of administration. It is therefore enacted, that two-thirds of such commission shall be retained by the Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies for his own use in respect of the collection of the assets, and the other one-third thereof shall be retained by him for his own use upon the administration of such assets, or shall be paid by him half-yearly into the public treasury, for the use of the person, whether himself or any of his successors in office, who, as Administrator General, shall administer the assets in respect of which the commission shall be received.

XXIV. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governments of the said Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, may, from time to time, order the aforesaid rate of commission hereby authorized to be received by the Administrators General of the respective Presidencies to be reduced and again to be raised, and may also, from time to time, order the proportion thereof payable into the public treasury as aforesaid, and also the proportions thereof to be retained as above-mentioned for the collection and administration respectively of the assets, to be altered in such manner as they may respectively think fit. Provided that the commission to be received shall not at any time exceed five per cent. of the assets collected, and that no person now holding the office of Administrator General of either of the said Presidencies of Bengal or Fort St. George, shall, by any such order, be deprived of the right to receive and retain for his own use, a commission at the rate of three per cent. in respect of all assets collected and actually administered by him.

XXV. The Administrator General shall defray all the expenses of the establishment necessary for his office, and all other charges to which the said office shall be subject, except those for which express provision is made by this Act.

XXVI. No person other than the Administrator General, acting officially, shall be entitled to receive any commission or agency charges for anything done as executor or administrator, under any probate or letters of administration, or letters ad colligenda bona, which have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal since the passing of Act No. VII. 1849, or by either of the said other Supreme Courts of Judicature since the passing of Act No. II. 1850, or which shall hereafter be granted by either of the said Courts; but this enactment shall not prevent any executor or other person, from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him in his character of executor, or by way of commission or otherwise.

XXVII. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall enter into books, to be kept by him for that purpose, separate and distinct accounts of each estate, and of all such sums of money, bonds and other securities for money, goods, effects and things, as shall come to his hands, or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him, under this Act, and likewise of all payments made by him on account of such estate, and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively, which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours, paying only such reasonable fee as hath been or shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Government and published in the official Gazette of the Presidency to which the same may relate.

XXVIII. The Government shall have power, from time to time, to make and alter any general rules and orders consistent with the provisions of this Act, for the safe custody of the assets and securities, which shall come to the hands or possession of the Administrator General, and for the remittance to the East India Company at their house in England of all sums of money which shall be payable, or belong to persons resident in Europe, or in other cases where such remittances shall be required, and generally for the guidance and government of the Administrator General in the discharge of his duties, and may, by such rules and orders, amongst other things, direct what books, accounts and statements, in addition to those mentioned in this Act, shall be kept by the Administrator General; and in what form the same shall be kept, and what entries the same shall contain, and where the same shall be kept, and where and how the assets and securities belonging to the estates to be administered by such Administrator General shall be kept and invested or deposited, pending the administration thereof, and how and at what rate or rates of exchange any remittances thereof shall be made.

XXIX. Such orders shall be published in the official Gazettes of the several Presidencies, and it shall be the duty of the several Administrators General to obey and fulfil the same, and the same shall be a full authority and indemnity for all persons acting in pursuance thereof.

XXX. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall, twice in every year, that is to say, on the first day of March, and on the tenth day of August, or on the first day on which the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency shall be sitting after those days, or on such other days as the Government shall, by any rules or orders to be published as aforesaid, direct, exhibit and deliver, in open Court, a true Schedule, showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances during the period of six months, ending severally on the thirty-first day of December and thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all bonds or other securities received on account of each of the said estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all administrations, whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period; specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid, which Schedules shall be filed of record in such Supreme Court of Judicature, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the official Gazette of the Presidency by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered by such Administrator General to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and shall be sent by the Governor thereof to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in order that the said Court of Directors may, if they think fit so to do, order the same to be deposited at the East India House, London, for public inspection, and may cause notices to be published in the London Gazette, and other leading newspapers, that such Schedules are open to inspection there, or may make such other orders respecting the same as they may think fit.

XXXI. On the thirty-first of December, or the thirtieth of June, whichever shall first happen after the expiration of one year from the time of the granting of any letters of administration under this Act, or within such other period as the Government shall, by any rules or orders to be made and published as aforesaid, direct, the Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies, shall pay into the General Treasury of the East India Company of the Presidency to which he shall be subject, the balance due to the estate in respect of which such letters of administration shall be granted. The Administrator General shall continue to administer the estates in respect of which such balances shall have been paid into the Public Treasury as aforesaid, and shall, on every subsequent thirty-first December and thirtieth June, or at such other period as the Government shall, by any such general rules or orders, direct, pay into the Public Treasury any further balances, which shall then be in his hands on account of such estates.

XXXII. The Government shall, from time to time, appoint an auditor or auditors to examine the accounts of the Administrator General at the times of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Government shall think fit.

XXXIII. The auditor or auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the Government whether they contain a full and true account of everything which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the books which by this Act, are, or which by any such general rules and orders as aforesaid, shall be directed to be kept by the Administrator General, have been duly and regularly kept, and whether the assets and securities have been duly kept and invested and deposited in the manner prescribed by this Act, or which shall be prescribed by any such rules and orders to be made as aforesaid.

XXXIV. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General, or other party or parties, if he shall think fit, on oath or solemn affirmation, to be by him administered; and to call for all books, papers, vouchers and documents, which shall appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference; and if the Administrator General or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse, or, without reasonable cause, neglect to attend, or to produce any book, paper, voucher or document required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a solemn affirmation, when by law an affirmation may be substituted for an oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

XXXV. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof, and of every such reference and examination as aforesaid, shall be defrayed by all the estates, to which such schedules or accounts shall relate, which costs and expenses, and the portion thereof to be contributed by each of the said estates, shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Government, and shall be paid out of the said estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XXXVI. If upon any such reference and examination, the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein contained, or which ought to be therein contained, or that the assets have not been duly kept and invested or deposited in the manner directed by this Act, or which shall be directed by any such rules and orders as aforesaid, or that the Administrator General has failed to comply with the provisions and directions of this Act, or of any such rules and orders, he or they shall report accordingly to the Government.

XXXVII. The Government may refer every such report, as last aforesaid, to the consideration of the Advocate General for the Presidency, who shall thereupon, if he shall think fit, proceed summarily against the defaulter or his personal representative in the Supreme Court of Judicature in the Presidency, by petition for an account, or to compel obedience to this Act, or to such rules and orders as aforesaid, or otherwise as he may think fit, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under the administration of such defaulter; and the said Advocate General shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power, upon any such petition, to compel the attendance in Court of the defendant or defendants, and any witnesses who may be thought necessary, and to examine them orally or otherwise as the said Court shall think fit, and to make and enforce such order or orders as the Court shall think just.

XXXVIII. The costs, including those of the Advocate General, and of the reference to him, if the same shall be directed by the Court to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, or out of the estates ratably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever any costs shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the estates by which the same shall have been in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said estates, if it shall think fit.

XXXIX. Any orders which shall be made by any of the said Supreme Courts shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as decretal orders.

XL. Whenever any British subject shall have died intestate, leaving assets within any of the said Presidencies and letters of administration of his effects, shall not be taken out for three months after his death, and the Administrator General of the Presidency shall be satisfied that such effects do not exceed in the whole five hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, at any time before administration of such effects shall be granted, grant to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the effects of the deceased, certificates under his hand, entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned, belonging to the effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole five hundred rupees.

XLI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such certificate, unless he shall be satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the effects of the deceased, either by the oath or affidavit of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he shall require.

XLII. Any such certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the certificate shall be granted, shall be a full discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, to the person paying or delivering the same: but nothing in this Act shall preclude any administrator of the deceased from recovering from the person receiving the same, the amount remaining in his hands, after deducting the amount of all debts or other demands lawfully paid or discharged by him in due course of administration, and any creditor or claimant against the estate of the deceased shall be at liberty to recover his debt or claim out of the assets received by such person, and remaining in his hands, unadministered in the same manner and to the same extent as if such person had obtained letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.

XLIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out letters of administration to the estate of any deceased person on account of the effects in respect of which he shall grant any such certificate, but he may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the estate exceeded five hundred rupees.

XLIV. For every such certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of three rupees in the hundred on the amount mentioned in the certificate.

XLV. Every person who, having been sworn, or having taken a solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, if convicted, shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

XLVI. It is hereby declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, unless so far as shall appear to him to be expedient for the due management of the estates of which letters of administration shall be granted to him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such estates respectively; but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee of such estates.

XLVII. And whereas it appears from the books and accounts of the Administrator General of Bombay, that on the thirtieth day of June, 1851, there were in his charge Government Securities and cash, arising from accumulations of interest on estates heretofore administered by or in the charge of the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court of Judicature at that Presidency over and above the amount of interest heretofore allowed on the administration of such estates;—

It is further enacted as follows:

The Administrator General of Bombay shall forthwith transfer and pay the said Government Securities, and cash balance, and any other Government Securities and cash, which, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall or may be in his charge, or under his control in respect of such accumulations of interest, or any additions thereto, to the Accountant General and Sub-Treasurer of Bombay, to be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government, and the receipt of the Accountant and of the Sub-Treasurer of Bombay for any monies or securities so paid, or transferred to them under the provisions of this Act, shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General for any such payment or transfer.

XLVIII. The net proceeds of all estates in the official charge of the Administrator General of either of the Presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay, and which now appear, or shall hereafter appear, from the official books and accounts of the Ecclesiastical Registrar and of the Administrator General of either of those Presidencies, or from the official books and accounts of either of those Officers, to have been in official custody for a period of fifteen years or upwards, without any claim thereto having been made and allowed, shall be transferred and paid to the Sub-Treasurer of the East India Company at Fort St. George and Bombay, respectively, and be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government, and the receipt of the said Sub-Treasurer and Accountant General shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the said Administrator General for any such payment or transfer. Provided that this Act shall not authorize any transfer or payment of any such proceeds as aforesaid pending any suit already instituted, or which shall be hereafter instituted, in respect thereof.

XLIX. If any claim shall be hereafter made to any part of the securities, monies, or proceeds, which shall be carried to the account or credit of the East India Company, under the provisions of this Act, and if such claim shall be established to the satisfaction of the Administrator General and Accountant General to the Government of Fort St. George and Bombay, for the time being, respectively, the said Accountant General shall direct the Sub-Treasurer of the Presidency to pay and the said Sub-Treasurer shall thereupon pay, out of the monies of the East India Company in his custody, to the claimant, the amount of the principal so carried to the credit and account of the said East India Company, or so much thereof as shall appear to be due to the claimant. If the claim shall not be established to the satisfaction of the said Administrator General and Accountant General, the claimant may apply by petition to the Supreme Court at the Presidency against the East India Company and Administrator General of the Presidency for the time being, and, after taking evidence, either orally or on affidavit, in a summary way as the said Court shall think fit, the said Court shall make such order on the petition for the payment of such portion of the said principal sum as justice shall require, which order shall be binding on all parties to the suit.

L. In the construction of this Act, the word "Government" shall be deemed to mean the Governor General of India in Council, so far as the Act relates to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or any place subordinate thereto, and the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency so far as the Act relates to the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively; the words "letters of administration" shall include any letters of administration, whether general or limited, or with a will annexed and letters ad colligenda bona. Words in the masculine gender shall include the feminine; and words in the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa; unless where such construction would be inconsistent with or repugnant to the context.

LI. Acts VII. 1849 and II. 1850 are hereby repealed as to all letters of administration hereafter to be applied for or granted.

LII. Nothing in this Act is intended to require the Administrator General to take proceedings to obtain letters of administration to the estate or effects of any officer or soldier or other person subject to any Articles of War, or to the estate or effects of any officer, seaman, or other person dying in the Marine Service of the East India Company, called the Indian Navy, unless when the Administrator General shall be duly authorized or required so to do by the Military Secretary, or other officer having similar powers with regard to the estate or effects of any officer, seaman, or other person dying in the Indian Navy; nor is anything in this Act contained intended to interfere with or alter the provisions of any Act of Parliament, for regulating the payment of regimental debts, and the distribution of the effects of officers and soldiers dying in the service of the East India Company, or of any Articles of War, or of any Act of Parliament relating to the Indian Navy.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 11th day of May next.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department,
The 15th February, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MY LORD.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow, by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the promotion or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) DERRY.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 11th February, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 11th February 1853:

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the office and duties of Administrator General, It is enacted as follows:

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, there shall be an Administrator General. The said Administrators General shall be called respectively the Administrator General of Bengal, the Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay.

II. Such officers shall be appointed and removable as follows:

The Administrator General of Bengal, by the Governor General of India in Council.

The Administrator General of Madras, and the Administrator General of Bombay, by the Governments of those Presidencies respectively.

III. Any person now holding the office of Administrator General at any of the said Presidencies, shall continue to hold the same, subject to the provisions of this Act.

IV. The Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity to be an officer of the Supreme Court.

V. All letters of administration which have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort St. George to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of that Court in virtue of his office since the passing of Act No. II. 1850; and all estates, effects and interests, books, papers and documents, now vested in, or belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Registrar, or under his control, by virtue of any such letters of administration, are by this Act, transferred to and vested in him as Administrator General of that Presidency.

VI. The two offices of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and Administrator General, may be held by the present Administrator General at the Presidency of Fort St. George. With that exception no person now holding the office of Administrator General, or hereafter to be appointed to such office, in any of the said Presidencies, shall, without the express sanction of the Government, hold the office of Ecclesiastical Registrar, or any other office, together with that of Administrator General.

VII. Every Administrator General hereafter to be appointed shall give security by bond to the East India Company for the due execution of his office, himself for one lakh of Rupees, and two or more sureties jointly and severally for another lakh of Rupees, or for separate sums amounting together to one lakh of Rupees, provided that at least two sureties shall be bound for each of such sums; and every Administrator General appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, shall, from time to time, when required by the Government so to do, cause a fresh surety or sureties to be substituted for any one or more of those previously bound, so far as the security shall relate to the due execution of his office for the time then to come.

VIII. No Administrator General shall be required by the Supreme Court to enter into any administration bond, or to give other security to the Court, on the grant of any letters of administration to him in virtue of his office.

IX. Any letters of administration, or letters of colligenda bona, which shall hereafter be granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature, at any of the said Presidencies, shall be granted to the Administrator General of the Presidency, unless they shall be granted to the next of kin of the deceased; and it is hereby declared that the Administrator General of the Presidency, shall be deemed to have a right to letters of administration in preference to that of any person merely on the ground of his being a creditor or friend of the deceased.

X. The words "next of kin," shall be deemed throughout this Act to include a willower, or widow of the deceased, or a residuary legatee, or any other person who, by law and according to the practice of the Courts, would be entitled to letters of administration in preference to a creditor of the deceased. Provided that no Ecclesiastical Registrar or other Officer of any of the said Courts, shall, by reason of his office, be deemed entitled to any letters of administration, or colligenda bona, or have any grant thereof made to him.

XI. If any person, not being a Mahomedan or Hindoo, shall have died, whether within any of the said Presidencies or not, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, and shall, if a British subject, have left personal assets exceeding the value of five hundred Rupees within any of the said Presidencies, or any of the Provinces or places subject thereto, or shall, if not a British subject, have left personal assets, exceeding five hundred Rupees, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature at any of the said Presidencies, and no person shall, within one month after his death, have applied for probate of a will, or for any letters of administration of his estate, the Administrator General of the Presidency in which such assets shall be, is hereby required, within a reasonable time after he shall have had notice of the death of such person, and of his having left such assets as aforesaid, to take such proceedings as may be necessary to obtain from the Supreme Court of Judicature at such Presidency, letters of administration to the effects of such person, either generally or with a will annexed, as the case may require. Provided that assets, which any person may be entitled to collect, receive, or dispose of, by virtue of a certificate granted under Act XX. 1841, shall not be deemed assets within the meaning of this Section.

XII. If in the course of such proceedings any executor, appointed by a will of the deceased, shall appear according to the practice of the Court, and prove the will and accept the office of executor, or any person shall appear according to such practice, and make out his claim to letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased, the Court shall grant probate of the will or letters of administration accordingly, and shall award to the Administrator General, his costs of the proceedings so taken by him, to be paid out of the estate, as part of the testamentary expenses thereof.

XIII. If no person shall appear according to the practice of the Court, and entitle himself to probate of a will, or to a grant of letters of administration, as next of kin of the deceased, the Court shall grant letters of administration to the Administrator General.

XIV. Nothing in this Act is intended to preclude the Administrator General from applying to the Court for letters of administration in any case within the period of one month from the death of the deceased.

XV. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General, under the provisions of this Act, shall be revoked or recalled, the same shall, as against the Administrator General, and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof, be deemed to have been only voidable except as to any act done by any such Administrator General, or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a will or of any other fact, which would render such letters of administration void.

XVI. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted under this Act, shall be revoked upon the production and proof of a will, all payments made, or acts done by, or under the authority of the Administrator General in pursuance of such letters of administration prior to the revocation thereof, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with such will annexed, shall be deemed valid, notwithstanding such revocation, as against all persons who shall not have previously had notice of the will.

XVII. If an executor or next of kin of the deceased, who shall not have been personally served with a citation, or had notice thereof in time to appear in pursuance thereof, shall establish to the satisfaction of the Court a claim to probate of a will or to letters of administration in preference to the Administrator General, any letters of administration which shall be granted by virtue of this Act to the Administrator General, may be recalled and revoked, and probate may be granted to such executor, or letters of administration granted to such other person as aforesaid. Provided that no letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General, shall be revoked or recalled for the cause aforesaid, except in cases in which a will or codicil of the deceased shall be proved, unless the application for that purpose shall be made within one year after the grant to the Administrator General, and the Court shall be satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay in making the application, or in transmitting the authority under which the application shall be made.

XVIII. If any letters of administration, which shall be granted to the Administrator General in pursuance of this Act, shall be revoked, the Court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration, and the whole or any part of any commission which would otherwise have been payable under this Act, together with the costs of the Administrator General in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation, to be paid to, or retained by, the Administrator General out of any assets belonging to the estate.

XIX. Any payment or delivery of assets to any legatee, or to any person entitled in distribution, which shall be made by an Administrator General after the expiration of one year from the grant of the letters of administration under which such payment or delivery shall be made, shall be allowed to the Administrator General as against all creditors and other claimants against the estate, of whose debts or claims he shall not have had notice before making such payment or delivery. Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the person to whom such payment or delivery shall be made, from any liability to refund to which he would otherwise be liable.

XX. All letters of administration, which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall be granted to him by his name of office, and all letters of administration heretofore granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar or Administrator General officially, or which shall be granted to any Administrator General in virtue of his office, shall authorize the Administrator General, to act as administrator of the Estate to which such letters of administration shall relate; and all estates, effects and interests, which at the time of the death, resignation or removal from office of any Administrator General shall be vested in him by virtue of such letters of administration, shall, upon such resignation or removal, cease to be vested in him, and shall vest in his successor in office immediately upon his appointment thereto, and all books, papers and documents kept by such Administrator General, by virtue of his office, shall be transferred to, and vested in his successor in office.

XXI. All actions, suits or other proceedings, which shall be commenced by or against any Administrator General, in his representative character, may be brought by or against him by his name of office, and no suit, action or other proceedings, already commenced, or which shall be commenced, against any person as Administrator General, either alone or jointly with any other person, shall abate by reason of the death, resignation or removal from office of any such Administrator General, but the same may, by order of the Court, and upon such terms as to the service of notices or otherwise as the Court may direct, be continued against his successor immediately upon his appointment, in the same manner as if no such death, resignation, or removal had occurred. Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained, shall render any such successor personally liable for any costs incurred prior to the order for continuing the action or suit against him.

XXII. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies, under any letters of administration, which shall be granted to him in his official character, or under any probate which shall be granted to him of a will wherein he shall be named as executor by virtue of his office, shall be entitled to receive a commission, at the rate of five rupees for every one hundred rupees, which he shall collect and invest in Government Securities, or pay into the public treasury, as hereinafter mentioned; and such commission may be retained by him out of any assets of the estate liable thereto, which shall come to his hands. In consequence, however, of the expenses and responsibility which will be incurred by the East India Company, two-fifths of the commission which shall be received by the Administrator General of Bengal, shall be paid by him into the public treasury, and be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company. The Administrator General of Madras and the Administrator General of Bombay may, subject to the provisions of the next Section of this Act, retain the whole of the five per cent. which shall be received by them, unless the Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively shall otherwise order. The said Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively, may issue orders, requiring the Administrators General of those Presidencies respectively, to pay into the General Treasury, to the account and credit of the East India Company, any portion, not exceeding two-fifths of the commission, which shall be payable to them respectively after the issuing of such orders.

XXIII. The commission to which the Administrator General of each of the said three Presidencies shall be entitled, is intended to cover not merely the expense and trouble of collecting the assets, but also his trouble and responsibility in distributing them in due course of administration. It is therefore enacted, that two-thirds of such commission shall be retained by the Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies for his own use in respect of the collection of the assets, and the other one-third thereof shall be retained by him for his own use upon the administration of such assets, or shall be paid by him half-yearly into the public treasury, for the use of the person, whether himself or any of his successors in office, who, as Administrator General, shall administer the assets in respect of which the commission shall be received.

XXIV. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governments of the said Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, may, from time to time, order the aforesaid rate of commission hereby authorized to be received by the Administrator General of the respective Presidencies to be reduced and again to be raised, and may also, from time to time, order the proportion thereof payable into the public treasury as aforesaid, and also the proportions thereof to be retained as above-mentioned for the collection and administration respectively of the assets, to be altered in such manner as they may respectively think fit. Provided that the commission to be received shall not at any time exceed five per cent. of the assets collected, and that no person now holding the office of Administrator General of either of the said Presidencies of Bengal or Fort St. George, shall, by any such order, be deprived of the right to receive and retain for his own use, a commission at the rate of three per cent. in respect of all assets collected and actually administered by him.

XXV. The Administrator General shall defray all the expenses of the establishment necessary for his office, and all other charges to which the said office shall be subject, except those for which express provision is made by this Act.

XXVI. No person other than the Administrator General, acting officially, shall be entitled to receive any commission or agency charges for anything done as executor or administrator, under any probate or letters of administration, or letters ad colligenda bona, which have been granted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal since the passing of Act No. VII. 1849, or by either of the said other Supreme Courts of Judicature since the passing of Act No. II. 1850, or which shall hereafter be granted by either of the said Courts; but this enactment shall not prevent any executor or other person, from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him in his character of executor, or by way of commission or otherwise.

XXVII. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall enter into books, to be kept by him for that purpose, separate and distinct accounts of each estate, and of all such sums of money, bonds and other securities for money, goods, effects and things, as shall come to his hands, or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him, under this Act, and likewise of all payments made by him on account of such estate, and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively, which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours, paying only such reasonable fee as hath been or shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Government and published in the official Gazette of the Presidency to which the same may relate.

XXVIII. The Government shall have power, from time to time, to make and alter any general rules and orders consistent with the provisions of this Act, for the safe custody of the assets and securities, which shall come to the hands or possession of the Administrator General, and for the remittance to the East India Company at their house in England of all sums of money which shall be payable, or belong to persons resident in Europe, or in other cases where such remittances shall be required, and generally for the guidance and government of the Administrator General in the discharge of his duties, and may, by such rules and orders, amongst other things, direct what books, accounts and statements, in addition to those mentioned in this Act, shall be kept by the Administrator General, and in what form the same shall be kept, and what entries the same shall contain, and where the same shall be kept, and where and how the assets and securities belonging to the estates to be administered by such Administrator General shall be kept and invested or deposited, pending the administration thereof, and how and at what rate or rates of exchange any remittances thereof shall be made.

XXIX. Such orders shall be published in the official Gazettes of the several Presidencies, and it shall be the duty of the several Administrators General to obey and fulfil the same, and the same shall be a full authority and indemnity for all persons acting in pursuance thereof.

XXX. The Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies shall, twice in every year, that is to say, on the first day of March, and on the tenth day of August, or on the first day on which the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency shall be sitting after those days, or on such other days as the Government shall, by any rules or orders to be published as aforesaid, direct, exhibit and deliver, in open Court, a true Schedule, showing the gross amount of all sums of money received or paid by him on account of each estate in his charge, and the balances during the period of six months, ending severally on the thirty-first day of December and thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all bonds or other securities received on account of each of the said estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all administrations, whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period; specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid, which Schedules shall be filed of record in such Supreme Court of Judicature, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the official Gazette of the Presidency by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered by such Administrator General to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and shall be sent by the Governor thereof to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in order that the said Court of Directors may, if they think fit so to do, order the same to be deposited at the East India House, London, for public inspection, and may cause notices to be published in the London Gazette, and other leading newspapers, that such Schedules are open to inspection there, or may make such other orders respecting the same as they may think fit.

XXXI. On the thirty-first of December, or the thirtieth of June, whichever shall first happen after the expiration of one year from the time of the granting of any letters of administration under this Act, or within such other period as the Government shall, by any rules or orders to be made and published as aforesaid, direct, the Administrator General of each of the said Presidencies, shall pay into the General Treasury of the East India Company of the Presidency to which he shall be subject, the balance due to the estate in respect of which such letters of administration shall be granted. The Administrator General shall continue to administer the estates in respect of which such balances shall have been paid into the Public Treasury as aforesaid, and shall, on every subsequent thirty-first December and thirtieth June, or at such other period as the Government shall, by any such general rules or orders, direct, pay into the Public Treasury any further balances, which shall then be in his hands on account of such estates.

XXXII. The Government shall, from time to time, appoint an auditor or auditors to examine the accounts of the Administrator General at the time of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Government shall think fit.

XXXIII. The auditor or auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the Government whether they contain a full and true account of everything which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the books which by this Act, are, or which by any such general rules and orders as aforesaid, shall be directed to be kept by the Administrator General, have been duly and regularly kept, and whether the assets and securities have been duly kept and invested and deposited in the manner prescribed by this Act, or which shall be prescribed by any such rules and orders to be made as aforesaid.

XXXIV. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General, or other party or parties, if he shall think fit, on oath or solemn affirmation, to be by him administered; and to call for all books, papers, vouchers and documents, which shall appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference; and if the Administrator General or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse, or, without reasonable cause, neglect to attend, or to produce any book, paper, voucher or document required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a solemn affirmation, when by law an affirmation may be substituted for an oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at the Presidency; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

XXXV. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof, and of every such reference and examination as aforesaid, shall be defrayed by all the estates, to which such schedules or accounts shall relate, which costs and expenses, and the portion thereof to be contributed by each of the said estates, shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Government, and shall be paid out of the said estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XXXVI. If upon any such reference and examination, the Auditor or Auditors shall not reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein contained, or which ought to be therein contained, or that the assets have not been duly kept and invested or deposited in the manner directed by this Act, or which shall be directed by any such rules and orders as aforesaid, or that the Administrator General has failed to comply with the provisions and directions of this Act, or of any such rules and orders, he or they shall report accordingly to the Government.

XXXVII. The Government may refer every such report, as last aforesaid, to the consideration of the Advocate General for the Presidency, who shall thereupon, if he shall think fit, proceed summarily against the defaulter or his personal representative in the Supreme Court of Judicature in the Presidency, by petition for an account, or to compel obedience to this Act, or to such rules and orders as aforesaid, or otherwise as he may think fit, in respect of all or any of the estates then or formerly under the administration of such defaulter; and the said Advocate General shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power, upon any such petition, to compel the attendance in Court of the defendant or defendants, and any witnesses who may be thought necessary, and to examine them orally or otherwise as the said Court shall think fit, and to make and enforce such order or orders as the Court shall think just.

XXXVIII. The costs, including those of the Advocate General, and of the reference to him, if the same shall be directed by the Court to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, or out of the estates ratably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever any costs shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the estates by which the same shall have been in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said estates, if it shall think fit.

XXXIX. Any orders which shall be made by any of the said Supreme Courts shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as decretal orders.

XL. Whenever any British subject shall have died intestate, leaving assets within any of the said Presidencies and letters of administration of his effects, shall not be taken out for three months after his death, and the Administrator General of the Presidency shall be satisfied that such effects do not exceed in the whole five hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, at any time before administration of such effects shall be granted, grant to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the effects of the deceased, certificates under his hand, entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned, belonging to the effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole five hundred rupees.

XLI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such certificate, unless he shall be satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the effects of the deceased, either by the oath or affidavit of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he shall require.

XLI. Any such certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the certificate shall be granted, shall be a full discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, to the person paying or delivering the same: but nothing in this Act shall preclude any administrator of the deceased from recovering from the person receiving the same, the amount remaining in his hands, after deducting the amount of all debts or other demands lawfully paid or discharged by him in due course of administration, and any creditor or claimant against the estate of the deceased shall be at liberty to recover his debt or claim out of the assets received by such person, and remaining in his hands unadministered in the same manner and to the same extent as if such person had obtained letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.

XLIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out letters of administration to the estate of any deceased person on account of the effects in respect of which he shall grant any such certificate, but he may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the estate exceeded five hundred rupees.

XLIV. For every such certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of three rupees in the hundred on the amount mentioned in the certificate.

XLV. Every person who, having been sworn, or having taken a solemn affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, if convicted, shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

XLVI. It is hereby declared to be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any Administrator General to trade or traffic for his own benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or persons whatsoever, unless so far as shall appear to him to be expedient for the due management of the estates of which letters of administration shall be granted to him, and for the sole benefit of the several persons entitled to the proceeds of such estates respectively: but this exception is not to be construed to alter the civil liabilities of the Administrator General as trustee of such estates.

XLVII. And whereas it appears from the books and accounts of the Administrator General of Bombay, that on the thirtieth day of June, 1851, there were in his charge Government Securities and cash, arising from accumulations of interest on estates heretofore administered by or in the charge of the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court of Judicature at that Presidency over and above the amount of interest heretofore allowed on the administration of such estates:—

It is further enacted as follows:

The Administrator General of Bombay shall forthwith transfer and pay the said Government Securities, and cash balance, and any other Government Securities and cash, which, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall or may be in his charge, or under his control in respect of such accumulations of interest, or any additions thereto, to the Accountant General and Sub-Treasurer of Bombay, to be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government, and the receipt of the Accountant and of the Sub-Treasurer of Bombay for any monies or securities so paid, or transferred to them under the provisions of this Act, shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the Ecclesiastical Registrar and Administrator General for any such payment or transfer.

XLVIII. The net proceeds of all estates in the official charge of the Administrator General of either of the Presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay, and which now appear, or shall hereafter appear, from the official books and accounts of the Ecclesiastical Registrar and of the Administrator General of either of those Presidencies, or from the official books and accounts of either of those Officers, to have been in official custody for a period of fifteen years or upwards, without any claim thereto having been made and allowed, shall be transferred and paid to the Sub-Treasurer of the East India Company at Fort St. George and Bombay, respectively, and be carried to the account and credit of the East India Company, for the general purposes of Government, and the receipt of the said Sub-Treasurer and Accountant General shall be a full indemnity and discharge to the said Administrator General for any such payment or transfer. Provided that this Act shall not authorize any transfer or payment of any such proceeds as aforesaid pending any suit already instituted, or which shall be hereafter instituted, in respect thereof.

XLIX. If any claim shall be hereafter made to any part of the securities, monies, or proceeds, which shall be carried to the account or credit of the East India Company, under the provisions of this Act, and if such claim shall be established to the satisfaction of the Administrator General and Accountant General to the Government of Fort St. George and Bombay, for the time being, respectively, the said Accountant General shall direct the Sub-Treasurer of the Presidency to pay and the said Sub-Treasurer shall thereupon pay, out of the monies of the East India Company in his custody, to the claimant, the amount of the principal so carried to the credit and account of the said East India Company, or so much thereof as shall appear to be due to the claimant. If the claim shall not be established to the satisfaction of the said Administrator General and Accountant General, the claimant may apply by petition to the Supreme Court at the Presidency against the East India Company and Administrator General of the Presidency for the time being, and, after taking evidence, either orally or on affidavit, in a summary way as the said Court shall think fit, the said Court shall make such order on the petition for the payment of such portion of the said principal sum as justice shall require, which order shall be binding on all parties to the suit.

L. In the construction of this Act, the word "Government" shall be deemed to mean the Governor General of India in Council, so far as the Act relates to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or any place subordinate thereto, and the person or persons for the time being administering the Executive Government of the Presidency so far as the Act relates to the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively; the words "letters of administration" shall include any letters of administration, whether general or limited, or with a will annexed and letters ad colligenda bona. Words in the masculine gender shall include the feminine; and words in the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa; unless where such construction would be inconsistent with or repugnant to the context.

LI. Acts VII. 1849 and II. 1850 are hereby repealed as to all letters of administration hereafter to be applied for or granted.

LII. Nothing in this Act is intended to require the Administrator General to take proceedings to obtain letters of administration to the estate or effects of any officer or soldier or other person subject to any Articles of War, or to the estate or effects of any officer, seaman, or other person dying in the Marine Service of the East India Company, called the Indian Navy, unless when the Administrator General shall be duly authorized or required so to do by the Military Secretary, or other officer having similar powers with regard to the estate or effects of any officer, seaman, or other person dying in the Indian Navy; nor is anything in this Act contained intended to interfere with or alter the provisions of any Act of Parliament, for regulating the payment of regimental debts, and the distribution of the effects of officers and soldiers dying in the service of the East India Company, or of any Articles of War, or of any Act of Parliament relating to the Indian Navy.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 11th day of May next.

Fort William, Civil Auditor's Office,
The 15th February, 1853.

NOTICE.—To avoid the inconvenience of tedious references from this Office by the occasional non-transmission of Certificates by Public Officers, taking or delivering over charge of their respective Offices, or availing themselves of leave of absence under the Rules in force, the Civil Auditor requests that, on submitting their Salary Bills for Audit, they will furnish at the same time the required Certificates, being careful to insert the dates correctly, or in the event of the Pay and Allowance being entered in the General Abstracts of Establishment, the Officer in charge will be careful to act in the manner above prescribed.

W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

Fort William, Civil Auditor's Office,
The 1st March, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.

To the Officers of the Judicial, Revenue, Customs, Salt, Opium, Abkaree and other branches of the Service.

The Civil Auditor requests that disbursing officers will submit for audit a detailed Pay Abstract of their office establishments respectively for the month of April, 1853, stating therein the names, dates of appointment, and the dates of Orders of Government sanctioning the same, or any alteration in the Salaries of Christian assistants and Native omahs that may have been made agreeably to the Financial Rules of 8th December, 1843. The thannah establishments under the control of the Magistrates and Joint Magistrates to be specified in detail, distinguishing the sums drawn under each particular head, and the total of the police force shown at one view in the outer column in the above Abstract. The Orders notified in the Calcutta Gazette of the 6th January, 1849, page 11, regarding vacant situations, should be strictly attended to, and at the foot of the Abstract a Memorandum must be given, showing the sums drawn purely as Batta on account of salaries of old incumbents; also any reduction that may have been effected in consequence of vacancies, and the amount subsequently carried to the credit of Government.

W. P. PALMER,
Civil Auditor.

No. 143.

NOTICE.—Tenders are hereby invited for the supply of 2,88,000 Iron Clamps and 17,28,000 Iron Nails, for packing Opium Chests.

Each Tender must specify the rate at which the tendering party is willing to supply the Clamps and Nails, of which specimens may be seen in this office.

The Tenders must be sealed and superscribed "Tender for the supply of Clamps and Nails." They will be received in this office until Monday the 7th proximo.

The party whose Tender may be accepted will be required to deliver the whole of the Clamps and Nails at the Opium Godowns on the Export Wharf of the Custom House in 3 instalments, viz. one-third on the 1st April, one-third on the 1st May and the remainder on the 1st June, and to furnish adequate security for the fulfilment of his engagement.

The Board reserve to themselves the option of rejecting any Tender without assigning cause.

By order of the Board of Revenue, Fort William, the 24th February, 1853,

A. GROTE,
Jr. Secretary.

NOTICE.—Great delay occurring, very frequently, in the clearance of Goods from the Custom House Wharf, the attention of Importers and Consignees is directed to the liability which they incur, under the Provisions of Section XII. Act XVI. of 1837. Parties who may not find a ready market for their Goods should avail themselves of the privileges of the Bonding Act (No. XXV. of 1836) for which purpose the Warehouses of the Bonded Warehouse Association and the Godowns of the Custom House are available. The latter, however, are but little used as Bonded Warehouses, the Merchants who rent Godowns on the Wharf being, probably, unwilling to appropriate them exclusively to Bonding purposes.

With the view therefore of affording greater facilities for the clearance of Goods within the time prescribed by law, Godown, No. 2, on the Import Wharf, has been set apart for the reception of Goods bonded for duty. Warehouse rent will be charged on each package according to the Table of Wharfage Rates now in force, but at the lower or single rate for the whole time the Goods may remain in the Warehouse. As the space is limited, and it is not intended that parties should make use of the Warehouse merely for the purpose of avoiding the double Wharfage rates to which, under existing Rules, they are liable in the event of delay in clearing their Goods, only such Goods will be received into this Warehouse as may have remained for two months uncleared on the Wharf.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1863.

Fort William, Home Department,
The 15th February, 1863.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Dawson Street, 8th December, 1852.

My Lord.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow, by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, or Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments, spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) Darcy.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

No. 143.

NOTICE.—Tenders are hereby invited for the supply of 2,88,000 Iron Clamps and 17,28,000 Iron Nails, for packing Opium Chests.

Each Tender must specify the rate at which the tendering party is willing to supply the Clamps and Nails, of which specimens may be seen in this office.

The Tenders must be sealed and superscribed "Tender for the supply of Clamps and Nails." They will be received in this office until Monday the 7th proximo.

The party whose Tender may be accepted will be required to deliver the whole of the Clamps and Nails at the Opium Godowns on the Export Wharf of the Custom House in 3 instalments, viz. one-third on the 1st April, one-third on the 1st May and the remainder on the 1st June, and to furnish adequate security for the fulfilment of his engagement.

The Board reserve to themselves the option of rejecting any Tender without assigning cause.

By order of the Board of Revenue, Fort William, the 24th February, 1853,

A. GROTH,

Jr. Secretary.

NOTICE.—Great delay occurring, very frequently, in the clearance of Goods from the Custom House Wharf, the attention of Importers and Consignees is directed to the liability which they incur, under the Provisions of Section XII. Act XVI. of 1837. Parties who may not find a ready market for their Goods should avail themselves of the privileges of the Bonding Act (No. XXV. of 1836,) for which purpose the Warehouses of the Bonded Warehouse Association and the Godowns of the Custom House are available. The latter, however, are but little used as Bonded Warehouses, the Merchants who rent Godowns on the Wharf being, probably, unwilling to appropriate them exclusively to Bonding purposes.

With the view therefore of affording greater facilities for the clearance of Goods within the time prescribed by law, Godown No. 2, on the Import Wharf, has been set apart for the reception of Goods bonded for duty. Warehouse rent will be charged on each package according to the Table of Wharfage Rates now in force, but at the lower or single rate for the whole time the Goods may remain in the Warehouse. As the space is limited, and it is not intended that parties should make use of the Warehouse merely for the purpose of avoiding the double Wharfage rates to which, under existing Rules, they are liable in the event of delay in clearing their Goods, only such Goods will be received into this Warehouse as may have remained for two months uncleared on the Wharf.

Fort William, Civil Auditor's Office.
The 1st March, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.

To the Officers of the Judicial, Revenue, Customs, Salt, Opium, Abkaree and other branches of the service.

The Civil Auditor requests that disbursing officers will submit for audit a detailed Pay Abstract of their office establishments respectively for the month of April, 1853, stating therein the names, dates of appointment, and the dates of Orders of Government sanctioning the same, or any alteration in the Salaries of Christian assistants and Native omials that may have been made agreeably to the Financial Rules of 31st December, 1843. The thannah establishments under the control of the Magistrates and Joint Magistrates to be specified in detail, distinguishing the sums drawn under each particular head, and the total of the police force shown at one view in the outer column in the above Abstract. The Orders notified in the Calcutta Gazette of the 6th January, 1849, page 11, regarding vacant situations, should be strictly attended to, and at the foot of the Abstract a Memorandum must be given, showing the sums drawn purely as lata on account of salaries of old incumbents: also any reduction that may have been effected in consequence of vacancies, and the amount subsequently carried to the credit of Government.

6. Veterinary Surgeon Purves has also been permitted to retire from the service.

No. 108 of 1853.—The following Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, is published for general information:

Military Department.

No. 7, of 1853.

OUR GOVERNOR OF THE PRESIDENCY OF FORT

WILLIAM IN BENGAL.

1. Brevet Major (then Captain) Ouseley, whilst in charge of the Treasury at Lohardugga, became a defaulter to the extent of Rupees 19,945-8-2, and was also charged with having, in contravention of the orders of Government, sold a bangalow to a native prince, knowing that such transaction was illegal and prohibited.

Court Martial on Brevet Major R. Ouseley, 20th Native Infantry, and proceedings thereon.

2. The state of his mental health, shortly after the charges were preferred, compelled his being sent to England; on being apprised of those charges, we expressed to you our firm resolution that the course of public justice should not be interfered with, unless the mental sanity of the accused should present an insuperable bar to his trial by Court Martial.

3. Having recovered his health, we, in July 1851, permitted Captain Ouseley to return to ed to you our firm resolution that the course of public justice should not be interfered with, unless the mental sanity of the accused should present an insuperable bar to his trial by Court Martial.

3. Having recovered his health, we, in July 1851, permitted Captain Ouseley to return to Benzul, and apprised him of the charge of defalcation which would be preferred against him on his arrival.

4. He returned to Calcutta on the 20th December 1851, and on the 4th March 1852, he was arraigned on the following charges:

1st. For having, about the month of November 1846, in wilful disobedience of the standing orders by Government, dated the 7th November 1821, sold a house and its furniture at Chota Nagpore to the Rajah of Parbhoy for Rupees 10,000, or thereabouts, without the permission of Government.

5. The finding on this charge was "guilty."

2nd. For conduct disgraceful to an officer and a gentleman, in the following instances:

1st. For having, when Senior Assistant to the Governor General's Agent, South-West Frontier, at Chota Nagpore, on or about the 15th October, 1848, fraudulently misapplied to his own use, Government money under his charge to the amount of Rupees 10,945, or thereabouts.

6. The finding on this instance was "not guilty," and acquit him thereof.

2nd. In having, at Chota Nagpore, on or about the 15th October, 1848, in a letter addressed to the Assistant Accountant General to the Government of Bengal, and in a certificate bearing the same date, falsely certified that the sum of Rupees 81,219-7-1 had been on that day delivered over in cash to his successor, Captain J. C. Hamington, he, Captain Ouseley, well knowing that instead of that sum being in the Treasury, there was an actual deficiency of Rupees 10,945, or thereabouts.

7. On this instance the finding was "guilty."

As regards the preamble of the second charge, the Court acquit the prisoner of conduct disgraceful to the character of an officer and a gentleman, but find him guilty of unbecoming conduct.

The Court sentences the prisoner to be severely reprimanded, in such manner as His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief may be pleased to direct.

8. The Commander-in-Chief called upon the Court Martial to revise their finding on the first instance of the second charge, but the Court adhered to it, whereupon His Excellency published the following announcement:

The Commander-in-Chief not having approved of the sentence of the Court, deems it inexpedient to inflict any further reprimand than will be conveyed by the promulgation of the case in orders.

9. We concur with you in expressing extreme surprise at the finding of the Court on the second instance of the second charge as above quoted, "under which finding," as observed by you, "the Court has recorded an opinion that to state in writing a deliberate untruth, as to a matter of public and pecuniary trust, of which Major Ouseley is found guilty, does not involve conduct disgraceful to the character of an officer and a gentleman, but is simply unbecoming."

10. The result of the Court Martial was published in General Orders on the 11th May, 1852, and shortly afterwards, a copy of Major Ouseley's defence was published in the Calcutta newspapers.

Englishman, 26th May, 1852.

That document contained the following paragraph, having reference to the first of the above charges, &c., that of selling a house and property to the Rajah of Parbhoy:—

"If it were worth my while, I could show that among the Members of the Civil Service, there have been some, who have sold property to natives for sums far exceeding its value, men, who have more than once sold the same property, each time the native making transfer

"of the amount agreed on for the article sold, it never appearing at the return of the thing to the Gentleman, that the latter made any payment. Such cases have occurred, and the Court will, if so pleased, compare them with mine, and then, when assured that the Civilian concerned in these cases still fill valuable situations, and have never been held up to the world as disgraced men, why, I ask, should there be such difference in the measure of justice to different men?"

11. On observing this publication, you very properly called upon Major Ouseley to state whether he used these expressions, and if he did so, to state whether they refer to Civil Servants employed under your Government, and if so, to indicate the Officers to whom he alludes, and the transactions in which they have been concerned.

12. In reply, Major Ouseley admitted that he did make use of these expressions, but he declined to name the Civilian to whom he referred, adding that to do so, "would be tantamount to assuming the character of a public accuser, a course which would expose me to danger and difficulty, and which I would avoid if graciously permitted by His Lordship."

13. Upon this, the Governor General observed that Major Ouseley's reply "is wholly unsatisfactory, as, if there are Civil Officers who have been guilty of such proceedings, it is Major Ouseley's business to declare them, rather than by the indefinite statement he has made, to allow the reproach which may attach to a few, to rest upon the whole service to which they belong."

His Lordship further remarked that it would be more for Major Ouseley's credit to be a public accuser, than a public slanderer, which he must be held to be as long as he refuses to give proof of the injurious statement he has made in open Court.

14. Your Government entirely agreed in this view of Major Ouseley's conduct, and in bringing to our notice the particular passage of the defence as above quoted, you also added that you considered the tone of his defence so censurable as to require our special attention.

15. In addition to the above narrative, we have to state that in breach of a rule of the service, Major Ouseley has addressed us direct on the subject of these proceedings, having forwarded his letters, and enclosure (of which we send copies) through the medium of the Post Office.

16. This address to us, dated the 6th and 7th October last, contains the following very objectionable matter, &c.:—

"Had I desired to evade the requisition, it had been easy for me to name the dead, and thus baffled all enquiry; being incapable of so doing, I respectfully demanded complying with His Lordship's command."

17. On a careful consideration of the whole of these circumstances, we have resolved that Major Ouseley shall be removed from the service, without prejudice to his claims, under the Retiring Regulations.

We are, &c.,

(Signed) J. W. Hogg

And twelve other Directors.

London,

19th January, 1853.

Captain and Brevet Major R. Ouseley, of the 56th Regiment Native Infantry, is removed from the service of the East India Company from the 3rd March, 1853, the date of receipt of the foregoing despatch, but without prejudice to the retiring pension to which he may be entitled under the Regulations of the service.

*General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor

Fort William, the 4th March, 1853.

No. 200 of 1853.—Under instructions from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to lay down the following rules on the subject of passages for discharged European Soldiers and their families, to have effect at the three Presidencies, in supersession of existing rules:

1. The grant of charter party passage allowance at fixed rates is to be discontinued.

2. Every Soldier born or enlisted in Great Britain or Ireland, on receiving his discharge, either upon the expiration of any period for which he shall have enlisted, or otherwise, and with or without pension, shall be provided with a passage to England for himself, his wife, and his legitimate children.

3. Any Soldier receiving his discharge, desiring to proceed to Australia or to any of the Colonies, will be allowed a passage for himself, his wife, and his legitimate children, provided the cost of such passage does not exceed the amount for which a passage to England can be engaged at the time.

4. The wives of Soldiers who, in consequence of being in private service, do not embark with their husbands, are not afterwards entitled to a passage; but if they are prevented from accompanying their husbands by any other cause beyond their own control, they will be entitled to a passage when the impediment shall have ceased.

5. The unmarried daughters of discharged Soldiers are entitled to passages without limit as to age; but no boy above the age of 14 will be provided with a passage unless he be crippled or ill, in which case he will be allowed a passage without limit as to age.

This rule also applies to the legitimate children of deceased Soldiers.

6. The widows of Soldiers will be provided with passages if they embark within six months of the date of the death of their husbands; but if they voluntarily remain in India beyond that time, their claim to passage will cease. If detained by any cause beyond their own control, their claim to passage at a subsequent time will be specially considered.

7. No Soldier, who, on receiving his discharge, with or without pension, chooses to remain in India, shall, at any subsequent period, be entitled to a passage; neither will a passage be provided for the wives, children, or widows of such men.

Fort William, 7th March, 1853.

BY COMMAND OF THE MOST NOBLE THE GOVERNOR OF BENGAL.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
ESTABLISHMENT OF CONTRACT MAIL PACKETS to Ceylon, Mauritius and England, via the Cape of Good Hope.

General Post Office, 21st July 1852.

The Mail Packets of the General Screw Steam Shipping Company will convey Mails to Ceylon, Mauritius, Cape of Good Hope, Ascension and England.

All Letters and Newspapers for Ascension, Mauritius and the Cape of Good Hope, unless specially superscribed for transmission by the "General Screw Steam Shipping Company's Steamers," will be forwarded by sailing Vessels.

Letters for the above British possessions sent by these Packets, will be liable to the uniform rate of one shilling, or eight annas, when not exceeding half an ounce in weight, two shillings, or one rupee, when not exceeding an ounce, and so on in proportion; but Newspapers transmitted by these Packets will be conveyed free from charge.

The postage chargeable on letters for Mauritius, Cape of Good Hope and Ascension, must be paid in advance; but parties forwarding letters for Ceylon and England by these Packets, possess the option of paying the Steam postage in advance, or leaving it to be paid on delivery.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Deputy Post Master General, in Charge.

Board of Revenue, the 3rd March, 1863.

NOTICE.—Great delay occurring, very frequently, in the clearance of Goods from the Custom House Wharf, the attention of Importers and Consignees is directed to the liability which they incur, under the Provisions of Section XII. Act XVI. of 1837. Parties who may not find a ready market for their Goods should avail themselves of the privileges of the Bonding Act (No. XXV. of 1836,) for which purpose the Warehouses of the Bonded Warehouse Association and the Godowns of the Custom House are available. The latter, however, are but little used as Bonded Warehouses, the Merchants who rent Godowns on this Wharf being, probably, unwilling to appropriate them exclusively to Bonding purposes.

With the view therefore of affording greater facilities for the clearance of Goods within the time prescribed by law, Godown, No. 2, on the Import Wharf, has been set apart for the reception of Goods bonded for duty. Warehouse rent will be charged on each package according to the Table of Wharfage Rates now in force, but at the lower or single rate for the whole time the Goods may remain in the Warehouse. As the space is limited, and it is not intended that parties should make use of this Warehouse merely for the purpose of avoiding the double Wharfage rates to which, under existing Rules, they are liable in the event of delay in clearing their Goods, only such Goods will be received into this Warehouse as may have remained for two months uncleared on the Wharf.

By order the Board of Revenue,

WILLIAM BRACKEN,
Collector of Customs.

A. S. JACKSON, Officiating Collector.

Zillah Dacca Collectorate, the 2nd March, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—An Examination will be held early in April 1853, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. All Candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagari character.

2nd.—All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions, will be requested, through the Military Department, not to grant certificates of qualification to any Candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years: and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd.—Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of Examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th.—The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th.—No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed by producing false papers, and the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future Candidates, who will, as stated above, require to be furnished with regular descriptive rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th.—All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster, without special leave.

7th.—All Students in the Military Class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1853.

Port William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 11th March, 1853.

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day, the Governor General of India in Council being desirous that no time should be lost in passing the Act.

Resolved,—that the rule requiring that no draft of a law shall be ordered to be published till at least one week shall have elapsed from the day on which it was first laid before the Council of India in its Legislative Department, and that the Rules requiring that all Acts of the Governor General of India in Council shall be brought up for second reading in two months, or in three months, from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once passed into Law.

ACT No. III. OF 1853.

An Act relating to the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company in the Presidency of Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient before the opening of any part of the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company, in the Presidency of Bombay, to provide rules for regulating the said Railway, for preventing frauds upon the said Company, and for the punishment of certain offences which may endanger the safety of persons travelling upon the said Railway; It is enacted as follows.

I. No passenger shall enter any Carriage used on the said Railway, without having first paid his fare and obtained a ticket. Each passenger, on payment of his fare, shall be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of Carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid; each passenger shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company duly authorised to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand, to any of the Company's servants duly authorised to collect tickets. Any passenger, not producing or delivering up his ticket as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started; unless he can prove that he has travelled a less distance only, and has paid his fare for such less distance.

II. At the intermediate stations the fares shall be allowed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there shall be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall be furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference, and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

III. Any person, who shall attempt to defraud the Company by travelling, or attempting to travel, upon the Railway without having previously paid his fare, or by riding in or upon a Carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare, or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the Carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof, or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such Carriage, or who shall in any other manner whatever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, is hereby subjected to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall get or attempt to quit any Carriage while such Carriage is in motion, or who shall rise or attempt to rise on the step, or any other part of a Carriage except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

V. Any person other than the engine-man and fireman, who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any horse, mule, engine or tender, and any person other than the guard or his assistant, who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any engine, car or goods wagon, without the special licence of the Superintendent of the said Railway, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees for each offence.

VI. No person shall smoke either on the Company's Railway, or in or upon any of their Carriages, or in any of the Carriages which may be specially provided for the purpose; any person infringing this regulation is hereby subjected to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees, and any person persisting in such infringement after being warned to desist by any of the Company's servants, in addition to incurring the penalty above-mentioned, may immediately, or at the first opportunity, be removed from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

VII. Any person, who shall be found in any Railway Carriage, or any part of the Company's premises, in a state of intoxication, or committing any nuisance, or act of indecency, or shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on the Railway, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may immediately, or at the first opportunity of travelling, be removed from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

VIII. If any special Carriage, or portion of a Carriage, or any private room or apartment shall be provided for the exclusive use of females, any male person who shall enter such Carriage or portion of a Carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or who shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees, and may be immediately removed therefrom, and also from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

IX. The Company shall not in any case be answerable for passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

X. If any person shall fail to pay on demand any sum due for the conveyance of any goods conveyed upon the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain and sell all or any part of such goods, or if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, it shall be lawful for them to detain and sell any other goods on their premises belonging to the party liable to pay such sum, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the sum payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto, or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

XI. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon the said Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of the said Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity of such goods.

XII. If any such owner or person as aforesaid shall fail to give such account to such servant, or the Company demanding the same; or if he shall give a false account thereof, he shall for every such offence, forfeit to the Company a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight, (as the case may be), in addition to the sum payable for the carriage of such goods.

XIII. No person shall be entitled to carry, or to require the Company to carry, upon the Railway, any goods which in the judgment of the Company shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall cause any dangerous goods to be carried upon the said Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing to the Book-keeper, or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall forfeit to the Company Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for the Company to refuse to carry any parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, or to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same.

XIV. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on the Railway, or any of the works, stations or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

XV. Any person who shall trespass upon the Railway, or on any of the lands, stations or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such premises on being requested to do so by any officer, servant or other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, and may be immediately removed from such premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

XVI. Any person who shall ride, lead, or drive upon or across the said Railway, or any part thereof, any beast or animal, (except in directly crossing the said Railway at any road or place appointed for that purpose, at a time at which he shall be lawfully authorized so to do,) shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each offence.

XVII. The owner of any animal which shall be found straying on the Railway, or on any lands belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten Rupees for each animal.

XVIII. Any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully remove or deface the number-plates, or remove or extinguish any lamp on any carriage belonging to the said Company, or shall wilfully damage or injure any carriage, engine, wagon, truck, warehouse, building, machine, fence or any other matter or thing belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, in addition to the amount of damage done.

XIX. If any person for whose use or accommodation any gate shall have been set up by the said Company on either side of the said Railway, or any other person, shall open such gate, or pass, or attempt to pass, or drive or attempt to drive any animal across the said Railway, at a time when any engine or train passing along the same shall be in sight, or who shall at any time omit to shut and fasten such gate as soon as he and any carriage, cattle or other animals or things under his charge, shall have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

XX. If any person shall commit any offence against this Act to which any penalty is attached, and the name and address of such person shall be unknown, any officer or servant of the Company, or any Police Officer, may lawfully apprehend and detain such person until he can conveniently be taken before a Magistrate, or other officer having jurisdiction over the offence, or until he shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

XXI. Whoever shall wilfully do any act or omit to do what he shall be legally bound to do, intending by such act or omission to cause, or knowing that he is thereby likely to cause, any engine, tender, carriage, or truck upon the said Railway to be obstructed, mismanaged, overthrown, or damaged in its passage upon the said Railway, and the life or limb of any person to be thereby endangered, shall be liable to be transported beyond sea for the term of his life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

XXII. If any officer or servant of the said Company shall wilfully or negligently omit to do what he shall be legally bound to do, and if, in consequence of such omission, the life or limb of any person shall be endangered, such officer or servant shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years.

XXIII. If any officer or servant of the said Company shall be in a state of intoxication whilst actually employed upon the Railway, or any of the works connected therewith; in the discharge of any duty, the omission or negligent performance of which would be likely to endanger the life or limb of any person, such officer or servant shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year.

XXIV. In the construction of this Act every officer or servant of the Company shall be deemed to be legally bound to do everything which he shall be required to do by any regulation having regard to public safety which shall be made by the said Railway Company, and allowed by the Government of Bombay, and of which such officer or servant shall have notice.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 14th March, 1853.*

The following Act passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 14th March 1853, is hereby promulgated for general information:

Act No. IV. of 1853.

An Act for the abolition of the Government monopoly of Tobacco in the Provinces of Coimbatore, Malabar and Canara.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient, that the monopoly of Tobacco in the Provinces of Coimbatore, Malabar and Canara, shall be abolished, Regulations VII. and VIII. of 1811, and such parts of Regulation V. of 1831, of the Madras Code, as relate to the said monopoly, are hereby rescinded.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of having before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Honble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

My Lord.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, and can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow, by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favor of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualty, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building, which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,000,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
Your obedient Servant,
(Signed) DEANT.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object a special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government of North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

CIRCULAR No. 1136.

(Copy for the Commanding Officers and Paymasters of Regiments.)

WAR OFFICE 16th December 1852.

SIR,

The question of allowing Officers to participate in the advantages afforded by the Barrack Libraries having been brought under my consideration, I have much satisfaction in acquainting you, with reference to the Circular from this Department of the 6th May 1853, that the General Commanding in Chief has concurred with me in the propriety of extending to Officers of the Army the privilage which has hitherto been withheld from them in this respect.

These Institutions were originally established for the sole use of Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers, and I should have hesitated therefore to entertain this proposition, had I considered that it would interfere with the means of amusement and instruction specially designed for them during their leisure hours; but I feel confident, that with the great additions which have been made of late years to the contents of the libraries, and under proper Regulations, the extension of the privilege proposed to Officers may prove advantageous, by extending the interest taken in, and the utility of these establishments, without inconveniently or injuriously interfering with the use the Soldiers make of them at present.

It will be necessary, however, to guard against such a possibility arising out of the unnecessary detention of Books by Officers, and I have to request that special instructions may be issued to the Officers Commanding the several Barrack Library Stations within your command, that the Books shall be delivered out to Officers and Men without partiality, and in the strict order in which they are applied for, and that you will take means effectually to prevent any Officer detaining Books beyond the prescribed period; and further to enforce this Rule, that a proportionate penalty to that imposed on soldiers, be enforced from Officers in any case of detention of Books beyond the times allowed by the Rules of the Library; and should any Officer so far abuse the advantage now afforded to him, as to incur this penalty three times in any Quarter, he should be deprived of the privilege of the use of the Library.

The rate of payment to be made by Officers who may become subscribers to the Library will be one day's pay of their rank per annum, and the same should be paid to the Paymaster of the Regiment in quarterly sums, avoiding fractions of a penny, and credited in his accounts in the same manner as the subscriptions of Soldiers, under the directions contained in Article 398 of the explanatory directions of 1st July 1848, but a nominal list of the Officers subscribing should be annexed to form 212, shewing the rates payable by each.

I have much pleasure in adding that, in the beginning of next year, a further supply of Books will be issued for the use of Military Libraries.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
W. BERESFORD.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 11th March, 1853.

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day, the Governor General of India in Council being desirous that no time should be lost in passing the Act.

Resole d.—that the rule requiring that no draft of a law shall be ordered to be published till at least one week shall have elapsed from the day on which it was first laid before the Council of India in its Legislative Department, and that the Rules requiring that all Acts of the Governor General of India in Council shall be brought up for second reading in two months, or in three months, from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once passed into Law:

ACT No. III. OF 1853.

An Act relating to the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company in the Presidency of Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient before the opening of any part of the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company, in the Presidency of Bombay, to provide rules for regulating the said Railway, for preventing frauds upon the said Company, and for the punishment of certain offences which may endanger the safety of persons travelling upon the said Railway; It is enacted as follows:

I. No passenger shall enter any Carriage used on the aforesaid Railway, without having first paid his fare and obtained a ticket. Each passenger, on payment of his fare, shall be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of Carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid; each passenger shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company duly authorized to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand, to any of the Company's servants duly authorized to collect tickets. Any passenger, not producing or delivering up his ticket as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started, unless he can prove that he has travelled a less distance only, and has paid his fare for such less distance.

II. At the intermediate stations the fares shall be deemed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there shall be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall be furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference, and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

III. Any person, who shall attempt to defraud the Company by travelling, or attempting to travel, upon the Railway without having previously paid his fare, or by riding in or upon a Carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare, or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the Carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof, or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such Carriage, or who shall in any other manner whatever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, is hereby subjected to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall quit or attempt to quit any Carriage while such Carriage is in motion, or who shall ride or attempt to ride on the steps or any other part of a Carriage except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

V. Any person other than the engineman and fire-man, who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender, and any person other than the guard or breaksmen, who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any luggage van or goods waggon, without the special licence of the Superintendent of Locomotives, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees for each offence.

VI. No person shall smoke either on the Company's premises, or in or upon any of their Carriages (except in places or Carriages when may be specially provided for the purpose), any person infringing this regulation is hereby subjected to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees, and any person persisting in such infringement after being warned to desist by any of the Company's servants, in addition to incurring the penalty above-mentioned, may immediately, or at the first opportunity, be removed from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

VII. Any person, who shall be found in any Railway Carriage, or any part of the Company's premises, in a state of intoxication, or committing any nuisance, or act of indecency, or shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on the Railway, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may immediately, or at the first opportunity of travelling, be removed from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

VIII. If any special Carriage, or portion of a Carriage, or any private room or apartment shall be provided for the exclusive use of females, any male person who shall enter such Carriage or portion of a Carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or who shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees, and may be immediately removed therefrom, and also from the Company's premises, and shall forfeit his fare.

IX. The Company shall not in any case be answerable for passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

X. If any person shall fail to pay on demand any sum due for the conveyance of any goods conveyed upon the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain and sell all or any part of such goods, or if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, it shall be lawful for them to detain and sell any other goods on their premises belonging to the party liable to pay such sum, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the sum payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto, or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

XI. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon the said Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of the said Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity of such goods.

XII. If any such owner or person as aforesaid shall fail to give such account to such servant of the Company demanding the same, or if he shall give a false account thereof, he shall for every such offence, forfeit to the Company a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight, (as the case may be), in addition to the sum payable for the carriage of such goods.

XIII. No person shall be entitled to carry, or to require the Company to carry, upon the Railway, any goods which in the judgment of the Company shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall cause any dangerous goods to be carried upon the said Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing to the Book-keeper, or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall forfeit to the Company Two Hundred Rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for the Company to refuse to carry any parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, or to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same.

XIV. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on the Railway, or any of the works, stations or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

XV. Any person who shall trespass upon the Railway, or on any of the lands, stations or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such premises on being requested to do so by any officer, servant or other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, and may be immediately removed from such premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

XVI. Any person who shall ride, lead, or drive upon or across the said Railway, or any part thereof, any beast or animal, (except in directly crossing the said Railway at any road or place appointed for that purpose, at a time at which he shall be lawfully authorized so to do,) shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each offence.

XVII. The owner of any animal which shall be found straying on the Railway, or on any lands belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten Rupees for each animal.

XVIII. Any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully remove or deface the number-plates, or remove or extinguish any lamp on any carriage belonging to the said Company, or shall wilfully damage or injure any carriage, engine, waggon, truck, warehouse, building, machine, fence or any other matter or thing belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Rupees, in addition to the amount of damage done.

XIX. If any person for whose use or accommodation any gate shall have been set up by the said Company on either side of the said Railway, or any other person, shall open such gate, or pass, or attempt to pass, or drive or attempt to drive any animal across the said Railway, at a time when any engine or train passing along the same shall be in sight, or who shall at any time omit to shut and fasten such gate as soon as he and any carriage, cattle or other animals or things under his charge, shall have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees.

XX. If any person shall commit any offence against this Act to which any penalty is attached, and the name and address of such person shall be unknown, any officer or servant of the Company, or any Police Officer, may lawfully apprehend and detain such person until he can conveniently be taken before a Magistrate, or other officer having jurisdiction over the offence, or until he shall be otherwise discharged by due process of law.

XXI. Whoever shall wilfully do any act or omit to do what he shall be legally bound to do, intending by such act or omission to cause, or knowing that he is thereby likely to cause, any engine, tender, carriage, or truck upon the said Railway to be obstructed, mismanaged, overthrown, or damaged in its passage upon the said Railway, and the life or limb of any person to be thereby endangered, shall be liable to be transported beyond sea for the term of his life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

XXII. If any officer or servant of the said Company shall wilfully or negligently omit to do what he shall be legally bound to do, and if, in consequence of such omission, the life or limb of any person shall be endangered, such officer or servant shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years.

XXIII. If any officer or servant of the said Company shall be in a state of intoxication whilst actually employed upon the Railway, or any of the works connected therewith, in the discharge of any duty, the omission or negligent performance of which would be likely to endanger the life or limb of any person, such officer or servant shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year.

XXIV. In the construction of this Act every officer or servant of the Company shall be deemed to be legally bound to do everything which he shall be required to do by any regulation having regard to public safety which shall be made by the said Railway Company, and allowed by the Government of Bombay, and of which such officer or servant shall have notice.

*East India House Department, Legislation,
The 11th March, 1853.*

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day, the Governor General in Council being desirous that it should be lost in passing the Act.

Rule 1.—That the rule requiring that no draft of a law shall be ordered to be published till at least one week shall have elapsed from the day on which it was first laid before the Council of Ministers in the Legislative Department, and that the Rules of the Council shall be brought in a second reading in two months, or in three months, from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once made into law:

ACT No. III. OF 1853.

An Act relating to the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company in the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas it is expedient before the opening of any part of the Railway belonging to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company, in the Presidency of Bombay, to provide rules for regulating the said Railway, for preventing frauds upon the said Company, and for the punishment of certain offences which may endanger the safety of persons travelling upon the said Railway; It is enacted as follows:

I. No passenger shall enter any Carriage used on the said Railway, without having first paid his fare and obtained a ticket. Each passenger, on payment of his fare, shall be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of Carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid: each passenger shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company, duly authorized to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon command, to any of the Company's servants duly authorized to collect tickets. Any passenger, on producing or delivering up his ticket as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place where the train originally started, unless he can prove that he has travelled a less distance only, and has paid his fare for such less distance.

II. At the intermediate stations the fares shall be deemed to be so paid, and the tickets shall only upon condition that the passenger shall in the train for which the fare shall be demanded. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall be granted, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference, and those who shall have obtained tickets for the shortest distance shall have the preference according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

III. Any person who shall attempt to travel upon the Railway without having previously paid his fare, or by riding in or upon a Carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare, or by entering his name in or upon any of the Carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof, or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the station to which he shall have paid his fare, to pay the Carriage, or who shall in any other manner whatsoever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, is hereby subjected to a penalty, not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall attempt to quit any Carriage while steam is applied in motion, or who shall ride or attempt to ride on the steps or any other part of a Carriage, or on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

V. Any person other than the driver, and fire-man, who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender, and any person other than the guard or engine-driver, shall not attempt to ride upon any carriage van or goods wagon, or to sit in the space between the compartments of a locomotive engine or tender, or to sit in any place not intended for the accommodation of passengers, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

VI. Any person who shall strike or attempt to strike any person employed by the Company, or who shall throw any stone or any other dangerous substance at any person employed by the Company, or who shall use any language calculated to excite any person employed by the Company to violence, or who shall do any act calculated to excite any person employed by the Company to violence, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE MOST NOBLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, THE 21ST MARCH, 1853.

No. 239 of 1853.—The following Notification from the Foreign Department, is re-published in General Order:

No. 1317.

NOTIFICATION.

FORT WILLIAM.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT, THE 19TH MARCH, 1853.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council has much satisfaction in publishing for general information, Extracts of a Despatch from Brigadier General Steel, C. B., dated 23rd February, in which he reports the occupation of Tounghoo by the force under his Command, and the expulsion of the Burmese Troops from the Eastern side of the Province.

Although the invincible retreat of the enemy before the force has afforded it little opportunity of proving its superiority in the field; yet its steady discipline, its forbearance from all excesses, and its alacrity in the performance of every duty, have well deserved the applause of the Governor General in Council, and command his confidence.

His Excellency in Council desires to convey to Brigadier General Steel his best thanks for the manner in which he has conducted the Expedition to its successful issue; as well as to the several Officers whom the Brigadier General has specially named in his Despatch.

And to all, officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers, the Governor General in Council has to offer the assurance of his approbation.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

Extract of a Despatch from Brigadier General S. H. Steel, C. B., Commanding Martaban Column, dated Camp Tounghoo, the 23rd February, 1853, to C. Allen, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department.

My last Despatch, No. 18, dated the 15th instant, reported my having marched that day from Shway-Ongon. Beyond that place near Kyauk-Goon, the villages were entirely deserted from fear of the Burmese forces, a few of the inhabitants stole in from the jungle, to communicate with us; they were supplied with copies of the Declaration and encouraged to return to their homes.

The Force arrived at Kyauk-Goon on the 17th instant, unopposed before it was expected. No one had come out to meet us, and the few people outside of the Stockade, looked in alarm upon our approach across the floating stream which nearly surrounds the place. The highest authority within the town was an officer of the regulars, called by the name of "Goon," who opened the gates and accompanied us around the enclosure, pointing out the guns and other arms, of which a retinue was enclosed. The stockade is on the same simple plan, and about the same size as Bading, but more

For the Edward Fisher House, design by the Fisher firm, about the first of 1900, and I constructed it with Alvin H. Fisher, architect.

For 1961, a 1000- to 1500-lb. catfish was a seasonal staple and the fisherman's favorite. In Cleveland, however, the catfish was not a seasonal staple. The fisherman's favorite was the bluegill, and the catfish was a seasonal staple. The fisherman's favorite was the bluegill, and the catfish was a seasonal staple.

Following the request to the United Nations Secretary-General to convene a General Assembly, the Secretary-General has convened a General Assembly on the subject of the "United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea".
